New Study Abroad Program with Shanghai

The University is pleased to announce a new exchange program with Shanghai Jiao Tong University in China. The program offers the opportunity for students to spend a term abroad during the Summer and immerse themselves in a different cultural environment. Shanghai Jiao Tong University is a research-oriented university with strong international links. The Antai College of Economics and Management (ACEM) of Shanghai Jiao Tong University is the first business school in China to have triple accreditation by AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA.

Publications by Faculty

The second edition on Creative Solutions to Global Business Negotiations by Professor Claude Cellich is now available on Amazon. The new book provides valuable insights into the fine points of business negotiations and explores the latest advances in the field of international business. Professor Thomas Frankl who teaches management has recently written an article on the case for family-owned businesses. He has analyzed which strategic decisions have contributed materially to the long-term survival of family-owned companies operating in a competitive environment and proposes five recommendations to ensure sustainability.
